

BENCH
WHALE TAIL

BENCH WHALE TAIL

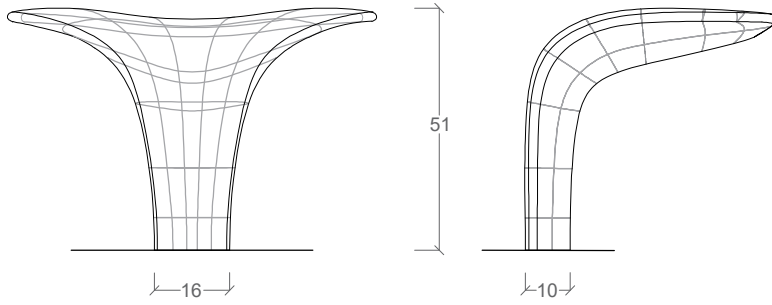

A piece of urban furniture inspired by marine life, capable of awakening emotions in urban and natural environments.

A bench of elegant simplicity. Organic shapes that not only fulfils the function of a seat but also provides an aesthetic value when it is placed in the urban space: seafronts, ports, parks, squares, streets and boulevards.

When the bench is not occupied, its soft undulating shapes make it a sculptural element.

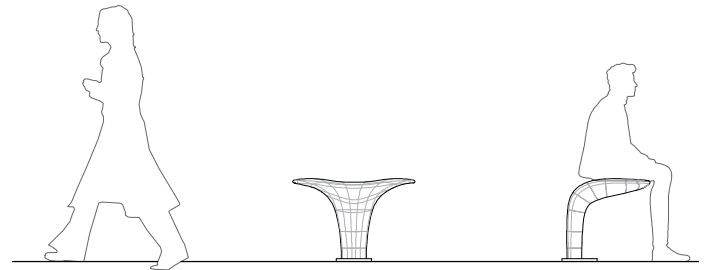

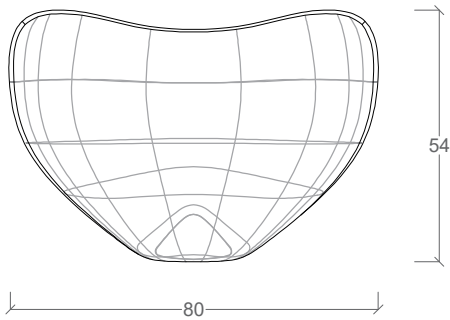

Technical Specifications

Individual seat that joined together allows the composition of lines of benches or groups.

Its minimalist modern and functional design has been reduced to the minimum expression: a single support.
